 ) ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
 ) OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

An initial hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before me on March 18, 2011. The United States was represented by AUSA C. Andrew Colasurdo and the defendant by Michael Filipovic for Paula Deutsch. The proceedings were digitally recorded.

Defendant had been sentenced on or about March 30, 2007 by the Honorable John C. Coughenour on a charge of Felon in Possession of a Firearm, and sentenced to 53 months custody, three years supervised release. (Dkt. 29.)

The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirements that defendant abstain from alcohol and be prohibited from entering any establishment where alcohol is the primary commodity for sale, participate in a substance abuse

01 program, submit to search, participate in a mental health program, provide his probation officer
02 with access to financial information as requested, and be prohibited from incurring new credit
03 obligations or opening new lines of credit. The conditions of supervised release were modified
04 on January 12, 2010 to require defendant to reside in and satisfactorily participate in a residential
05 reentry center program for up to 120 days. (Dkt. 31.)

06 On June 8, 2010, defendant's probation officer reported that defendant had violated the
07 conditions of supervised release by using alcohol on or before June 2, 2010. (Dkt. 32.) Defendant
08 was reprimanded and referred for professional assessment. No further action was taken at the 09 time.

10 The conditions of supervised release were modified on February 15, 2011 to require
11 defendant to reside in and satisfactorily participate in a residential reentry center program for up
12 to 120 days. (Dkt. 33.)

13 In an application dated March 15, 2011 (Dkt. 34, 35) U.S. Probation Officer Jennifer Van
14 Flandern alleged the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

15 1. Using PCP on or before March 12, 2011, in violation of standard condition 7.
16 2. Being terminated from the Residential Reentry Center (RRC) on March 14, 2011,
17 in violation of the special condition requiring him to reside and participate in an RRC for up to 18 120 days as directed.

19 Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights.

20 Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to 21 whether they occurred. I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised
22 release as alleged, and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The

01 next hearing will be set before Judge Coughenour.

02 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained.

03 DATED this 18th day of March, 2011.
